One hundred years from now
It will not matter
What kind of car I drove,
What kind of house I lived in,
How much money I had in my bank account,
Nor what my clothes looked like.

But one hundred years from now
The world may be a little better
Because I was important
In the life of a child.

Tell about your childhood. Choose an event, or a person that influenced you -- someone or something that made a difference in your life of faith.

Look at these powerful words from I Timothy ...

“Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are YOUNG, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity.”

I Timothy 4:12

People are always watching you. You never know when someone that is seeking God, may see the light in something you do or say. The most important thing that campers need to learn when they are at camp is that faith makes a difference. What will they learn by watching you? Or, in other words, “How do YOU set an example for the believers?” Please write a brief personal statement of faith and describe how you live it out.

When you look forward to working with youth in a Christian Outdoor Ministry setting what do you look forward to the most? What do you expect to be the biggest challenge?

It is important to develop a “we” feeling at camp. “We” can do wonders. Together, “we” can tackle any program, any problem, any challenge. The camp spirit is a mirror of the staff spirit. Happy staff produce happy campers. Central in the entire camp community is the staff itself. It is vital to the successful operation of the summer program that the staff works together with teamwork, love, respect and hard work.

Listed below are four characteristics important in the members of a camp staff. React to each and explain how you think you’d fit in.

C – Cooperation

A – Attitude

M – Maturity

P – Preparation

Describe yourself. Be candid. Tell us something that we forgot to ask, but that you think is important.

NOTE: We begin the hiring process in January. We make college visits for the purpose of recruiting and interviewing during February and early March. Applications are processed and reviewed as they are received, so it is in your best interest to apply early. Applications will be accepted until the summer staff needs are met.

Please give the enclosed reference form(s) (three for first time staff applications – one for returning staff) to people you feel will honestly evaluate your qualifications. It is most helpful to use pastors, instructors and employees as references. (No family members or close personal friends please.)
